

GATEWAY TO THE UNIVERSITY GROUNDS.

UNIVERSITY OF MARYLAND

AND

THE GIRLS OF MARYLAND

THE UNIVERSITY OF MARYLAND OPENS ALL ITS COURSES AND DEPARTMENTS TO GIRLS, BUT IS LAYING STRESS ON THE DEVELOPMENT OF WORK IN HOME ECONOMICS BECAUSE IT FEELS THAT IS THE PARTICULAR FIELD IN WHICH IT CAN DO MOST FOR THE FUTURE WOMANHOOD OF THE STATE.

THE UNIVERSITY IS GIVING EVERY RECREATIONAL FACILITY POSSIBLE FOR ITS GIRL STUDENTS. SUCH RECREATIONS INCLUDE HORSE-BACK RIDING, TRACK ATHLETICS, BASKET BALL, VOLLEY BALL, AND RIFLE SHOOTING.

THE HOME IS THE SOCIAL AND ECONOMIC UNIT OF THE NATION. WOMEN ARE THE HOME-MAKERS. IT, THEREFORE, FOLLOWS THAT WOMEN SHOULD PREPARE THEMSELVES TO MAKE AND MAINTAIN HIGHLY EFFICIENT HOMES.

THE UNIVERSITY OFFERS TRAINING TO FIT GIRLS TO MAKE EFFICIENT HOMES AND ALSO TO ENTER HIGHLY SPECIALIZED FIELDS OF TEACHING, EXTENSION AND RESEARCH.

TO DO ITS WORK, THE UNIVERSITY MUST HAVE FINANCIAL SUPPORT. IT APPEALS TO YOU, THE WOMEN OF THE STATE, TO HELP OBTAIN THIS SUPPORT.

GIRLS' RIFLE TEAM.

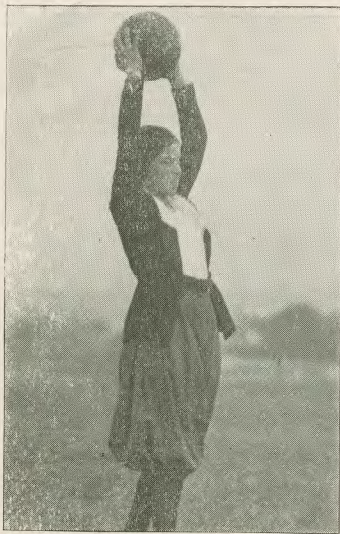

Miss Minnie Hill and Miss Mary Harbaugh Learning to Shoot from Prone Position.

Miss Myrtle Lewton Shooting from Kneeling Position.

Miss Esther Williams and Miss Anne Murphy Getting Ready to Score a "Bullseye."

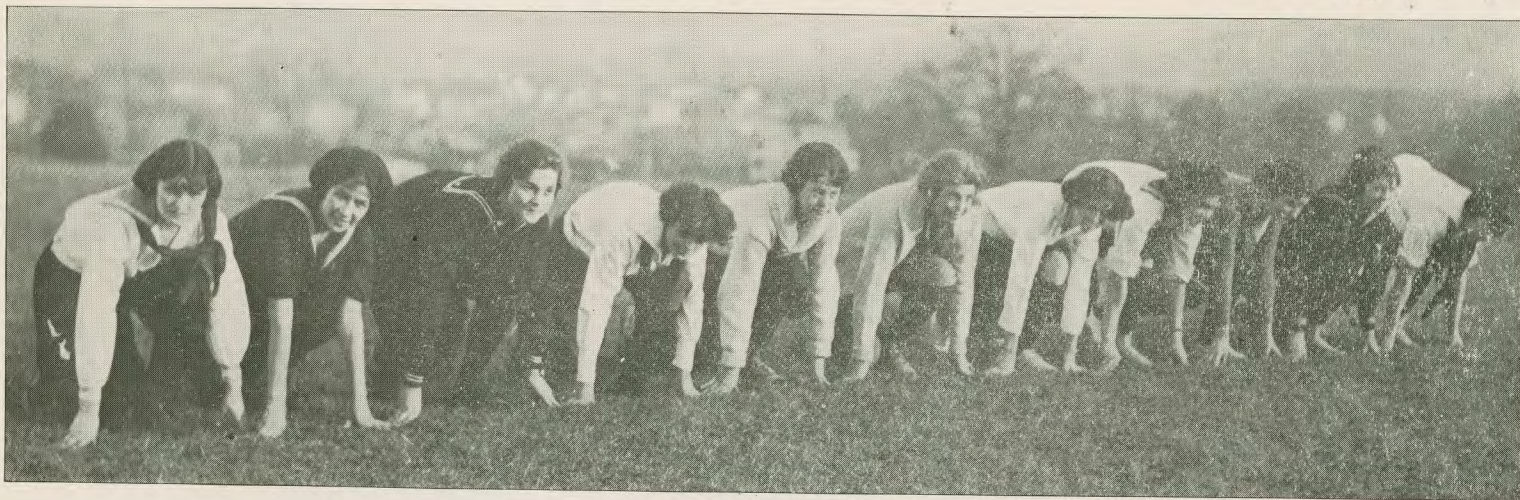

Miss Elizabeth Duvall Throwing
Goal in Basket Ball.

Miss Portia Melown on "Patsy"; All Girls Get an Opportunity to Learn to Ride.

Learning to "Block" in Basket Ball.

GIRLS' TRACK TEAM.

Miss Mary Harbaugh, Who Recently Won the All-Round
Point Scoring Honors in Girls Track Meet in Baltimore.

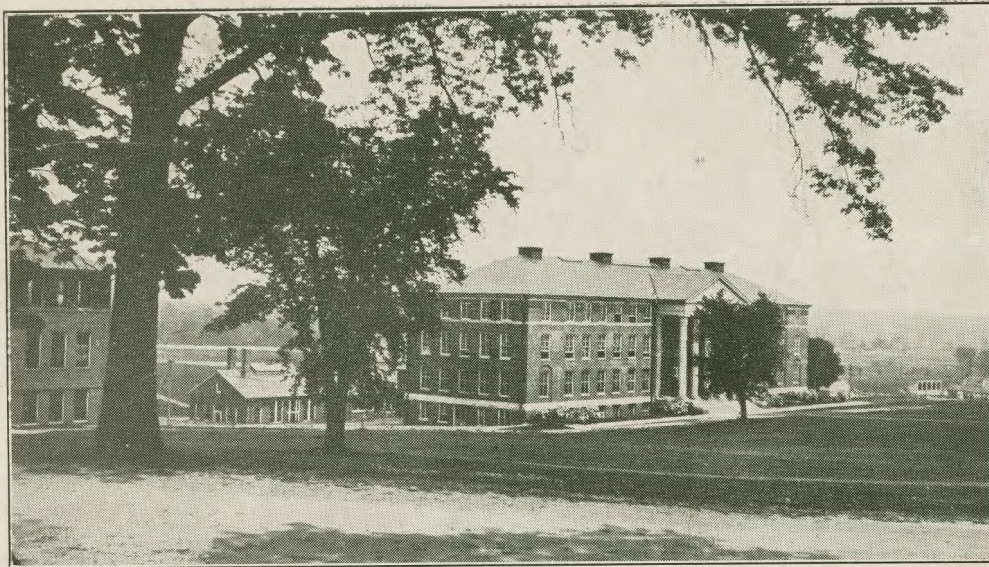

Miss Laura Amos, Harford County, Named as the Best Type of Girl from the Girls' Clubs of Fourteen States.

Guerneaux Hall, one of the two dormitory buildings for girls. The University needs new dormitories to house two hundred girls. It was compelled to turn away many last fall because of absence of housing facilities.

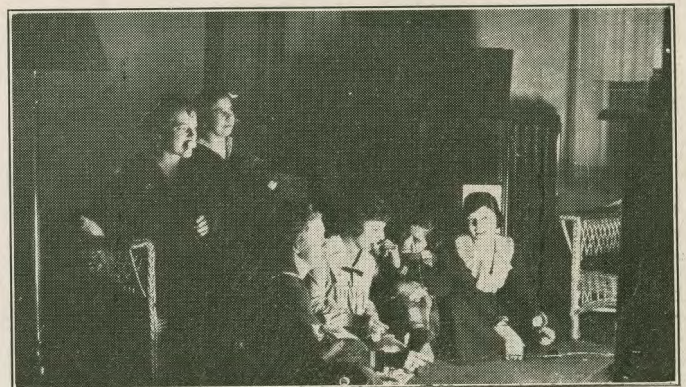

Home Economics practice house. A new dormitory for girls will place Guerneaux Hall at the disposal of the Home Economics department for much needed Home Economics practice work.

Agricultural Building. The Home Economics department is restricted to the use of only two rooms in this building. The women of the state should see that the legislature provides more space.

Some of the girl students.

When the Co-Eds toast marshmallows.